

Consolato Generale d'Italia
New York

Giorno della Memoria 2020

Monday, January 27 from 9:00 am to 3:30 pm

Twenty years of Remembrances in Italy. Reading the Names.

Consulate General of Italy, 690 Park Avenue, NY

Twenty years have passed since the establishment of January 27th in Italy as day of commemoration of the victims of Nazi-Fascism. Join us for the ceremony of the reading of the names of the Jews deported from Italy and the Italian territories.

Wednesday, January 29 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm (On view through February 26,. Mon-Fri 10-6)

Leo Yeni: An Artist`s Paper Life. Exhibition opening

24 West 12 Street, NY

An exhibition of drawings from the internment camp, sketchbooks with notations on architecture, art history and decorative arts, sketches, paintings, family photographs and official papers by Leo Yeni (1920- ). Curated by Cynthia Madansky, in collaboration with Centro Primo Levi.

Thursday, January 30 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm

What exactly is a concentration camp?

Italian Cultural Institute, 686 Park Avenue, NY

Dramatic reading of excerpts from Maria Eisenstein's diary Internee n.6 (1944), one of the earliest testimonies of life in a Fascist concentration camp. Introduction by and Q&A with Carlo Spartaco Capogreco (Università della Calabria), curator of the recent Italian edition of the diary (Mimesis, 2014).

Monday, February 3 6:30 pm

Mussolini`s Camps

NYU Casa Italiana Zerilli Marimò, 24 West 12 Street, NY

Carlo Spartaco Capogreco's classic volume Mussolini's Camps: Civilian Internment in Fascist Italy (1940-1943) (Routledge, 2019) will be the topic of a panel co-presented by NYU Casa Italiana Zerilli Marimò and Centro Primo Levi, with Silvana Patriarca (Fordham University), Carlo Spartaco Capogreco (Università della Calabria) and guests.

Wednesday, February 5 5:30 pm

Misinformation, Media Manipulation, and Antisemitism

The Italian Academy, Columbia University, 1161 Amsterdam Ave. (South of 118th St.), NY

The Italian Academy commemorates the Holocaust Remembrance Day with an annual academic event on discrimination and crimes against humanity. Welcoming remarks: Barbara Faedda (Italian Academy, Columbia University). Speakers: Ioana Literat (Columbia University), Rachel Deblinger (UCLA Library, UC Santa Cruz), Irene V. Paschetto and Costanza Sciubba Caniglia (Harvard Kennedy School), Alex Abdo (Columbia University).

Thursday, February 6 7:00 pm

Modernity, Fascism & Resistance

NYU Casa Italiana Zerilli Marimò, 24 West 12 Street, NY

How Four Ethiopians Confronted, Maneuvered and Survived the Italo-Ethiopian War of 1935-1941. A lecture by Yemane Demissie (NYU Professor / Filmmaker, author of forthcoming social-history documentary series, The Quantum Leapers: Ethiopia 1916-1975) with Heran Sereke-Brhan (Ph.D. Cultural Historian). In collaboration with Centro Primo Levi, NYU Department of History, NYU Tisch School of the Arts, NYU Department of Italian Studies, NYU Center for the Study of African and the African Diaspora (CSAAD).